[NOVEMBER, MDCCLXVI.] [NUMB. 49.]

THE SOUTH-CAROLINA AND COUNTRY GAZETTE; JOURNAL.

Containing the freſheſt Advices, both Foreign and Domeſtic.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1766.

LEGHORN, JUNE 30.

SEVERAL Genoeſe veſſels having been taken by ſome Corſairs, belonging to the Malcontents of Corſica, within view of the coaſt of Tuſcany, the Great Duke has demanded the veſſels, and they have been delivered up with the conſent of Paoli.

Civita-Vecchia, July 14. The Prior of the Iriſh Dominicans, and the Rectors of the three colleges of Engliſh, Iriſh, and Scotch Jeſuits, eſtabliſhed at Rome, have been baniſhed; the firſt to this city, and the other to different colleges out of the capital, for paying honours appropriated to royalty, to Edward Stuart.

Hanover, July 22. We have juſt been informed, that Frederick Duke of Brunſwick Lunenburgh Bevern, (couſin-german to the reigning Duke of Brunſwick) died on the 16th of this month, at Bevern, in the 43d year of his age.

Leghorn, July 20. We learn from Corſica, that there is a great miſunderſtanding between the Malcontents and the French Troops. The Marquis de Marbœuf has formed a line in order to prevent a communication with the Corſican troops, and has iſſued orders to the natives of the iſland to carry no flag on board any of their veſſels except that of Genoa; in conſequence of which laſt ſtep, ſeveral ſhips have been ſeized. On the other hand, Paoli was taking all the meaſures of defence, and had ordered four ſeluccas and three tartans to be built for a ſecret expedition.

Copenhagen, July 26. The King has granted to the Prince of Heſſe Ceſſel, the dignity of Viceroy of Norway; and has alſo appointed the Prince of Brunſwick Bevern, to be inſpector over all the regiments of infantry in the Dutchies of Schetſewick and Holſtein.

Hamburgh, July 29. Recruits have been raiſing here for ſome time paſt for Great-Britain, which novelty at firſt occaſioned various ſpeculations; but it is generally believed that it is for a reinforcement intended for North-America.

Genoa, July 19. They write from Corſica, that the chiefs of the rebels have orders to aſſemble immediately, to give a deciſive anſwer to France, and that the Marquis de Morbœuf expects probably a reinforcement of troops, as he is eſtabliſhing more magazines than the number of ſoldiers he at preſent commands requires.

We hear from Toulon, that they are building there in haſte, ſeveral ſhips of war, and that 1500 men are daily employed on the fortifications.

Conſtantinople, July 15. The Rebels in Cyprus are become ſo powerful, that they had, on the 5th of June, actually formed the blockade of Nicoſia, the capital of the iſland, and would not permit proviſions of any ſort to be carried into the city, though the inhabitants were in great want; and they threatened to lay ſiege to the town in a few days.

There has lately been another ſhock of an earthquake, and the plague ſtill continues at Pera.

The Poliſh Envoy Extraordinary had his private audience of the Grand Vizar laſt Saturday, and this morning that of the Grand Signor. The new Internuncio made his public entry on Thurſday laſt, and is to have his audience at the Porte a fortnight hence.

Paris, Auguſt 18. By an arret of the council of ſtate, dated Auguſt 1, 1766, the King has directed that the Canada Bills, which are Engliſh property, ſhall be admitted to be cleared in the manner directed by the arret of council of the 15th of December 1764; the form preſcribed by the convention of the 29th of March laſt, and ſome articles annexed to the preſent arret of Council, being previouſly complied with.

Altena, Auguſt 5. It is reported, that 30,000 troops, long accuſtomed to fight under a chief inured to fatigue, are this moment advancing towards the Dutchy of Lunenbourg, not as friends, but in an hoſtile manner.—Letters from London predicted this event ſix or ſeven weeks ago; but we can ſcarcely believe it, till we have a confirmation, which, if there is any foundation in the report, may be hourly expected.

Berlin, Auguſt 9. Major-General Beckwith, an officer in the King's ſervice, has obtained leave to reſign all his employments.

Auguſt 11. Lieutenant-General Burgoyne, in the ſervice of his Britannick Majeſty, is arrived here from Hanover, laſt from Brunſwick, accompanied by his brother, a Colonel in the ſaid ſervice.

Hamburgh, Auguſt 12. The Engliſh recruits meet with great ſucceſs here, becauſe they give great encouragement to men to inliſt; and it is thought theſe recruits are deſtined for their American colonies.

Nice, Auguſt 16. Tueſday laſt, the 12th inſt. about eight o'clock in the evening, arrived here his Serene Highneſs the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick, from a tour he had made in viſiting moſt of the fortified places which the King of Sardinia has in the mountains. His Highneſs alighted at the Governor's houſe, where he lodged during his ſhort ſtay here. Next morning his Highneſs viſited the River Varr, and in the afternoon went to ſee the new port at Lympia. The morning following he went to Montalban, and from thence returned to Turin, by the way of Menton and Dulce Aqua.

Turin, Auguſt 20. His Serene Highneſs the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick, arrived in town laſt Sunday, about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, in perfect health, from his journey in the Alps; and ſeems extremely well pleaſed and ſatisfied with the King of Sardinia's great attention to have him provided with every thing neceſſary to make his excurſion agreeable. On Monday his Serene Highneſs paid his court to all the royal family, and had a moſt gracious reception. Yeſterday he dined at his Excellency Count de Viry's; and this day with the King and royal family. His Serene Highneſs propoſes leaving this place next Saturday, and to take Alexandria, Caſtel, Tortona, and Pavia, in his way to Milan, where he propoſes ſtaying two or three days, and then to purſue his travels to Venice, by the way of Parma, Placentia, Bologne, and Padua, and hopes to be at Venice the 18th or 19th of next month.

Leghorn, Auguſt 4. While we are in expectation of hearing from Corſica, the reſult of the meeting of the general aſſembly of the nation, held in order to give France the anſwer ſhe requir'd of the Malcontents, we have received advice, that an accommodation with the Republick is treating of, and that Mide Marbœuf, commandant of the French troops, was in full correſpondence with General Paoli for that purpoſe.

Copenhagen, Auguſt 9. By a new ordinance, the maſters of Daniſh veſſels are enjoined to take care, that none of their people introduce contraband tea into the ports of Great-Britain, and to take all offenders into cuſtody, who, at their return to Denmark, are to be ſentenced to a year's ſlavery. The ordinance is intended to prevent the confiſcation of Daniſh veſſels; to which confiſcation they are liable for ten pounds of tea in Great-Britain, and in Ireland for five.

Vienna, Auguſt 10. A French courier has juſt paſſed through this city, coming from Conſtantinople. The letters he is charged with, far from confirming the retreat of Prince Heraclius, ſay, that the ſhocks of the earth, and the progreſs of the Prince, cauſe an extraordinary conſternation at Conſtantinople. Heraclius had newly beaten a large Turkiſh army in Natolia; and the Porte, alarmed at theſe ſucceſſive defeats, are aſſembling troops and ammunition from all parts, to ſend them thither by ſea and land.

Turin, Auguſt 27. His Serene Highneſs the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick, took leave of his Sardinian Majeſty, the Duke of Savoy, and the reſt of the royal family, laſt Friday evening, with whom his Serene Highneſs was ſeveral hours; and Saturday morning ſet out for Milan.

LONDON, AUGUST 9.

IT is ſaid the court of Madrid diſcovers no averſion towards ſettling the Manilla ranſom, provided a reaſonable allowance be made, on the part of Great-Britain, for the damage ſuſtained in ſtorming the place.

It is ſaid the breaking off of a late negotiation between two great perſonages nearly allied, has thrown freſh difficulties in the way of a Britiſh exile's return to his country.

It is reported that ſome farther advices were received yeſterday at the India-houſe, from Holland, relative to the ſucceſsful negotiations of Lord Clive with the Princes of the country.

We hear ſome extraordinary diſpatches are preparing to be ſent out to his Majeſty's Governors in the Weſt-Indies.

They write from Hamburgh, that the rapid increaſe of the Ruſſian Navy occaſion a good deal of ſpeculation among the politicians, as her Imperial Majeſty was known to have given orders for forming immenſe magazines at Cronſtadt, Revel, and other ports.

One of the ſchemes of the Right Hon. the Earl of Chatham, is ſaid to be the converting Milford-haven in Pembrokeſhire, into a royal arſenal and dock yard.

Yeſterday a number of ſailors, part of the crew of his Majeſty's ſloop Tamer, waited on his Majeſty at St. James's, to return him thanks for their having been ordered double pay, the ſame as the Dolphin man of war, with whom they went in company on their late expedition.

They write from Briſtol, that ſome bags of wild cotton had juſt been imported there from Penſacola, which was judged nothing inferior to the beſt Jamaica.

It is Mr. Gomm, a wealthy Engliſh merchant, and Court Banker at Peterſburgh, who has undertaken to build ſome Ruſſia men of war of the line, for the ſervice of her Imperial Majeſty.

Auguſt 12. Some letters from Leghorn mention, that advice was received there of a large body of Circaſſians, whoſe country is ſubject to the Grand Signior, having joined the forces of Prince Heraclius.

An order is ſent to Portſmouth for ſeveral frigates and ſloops of war to be got ready for ſervice on foreign ſtations in North-America.

It is ſaid the miniſters of two foreign powers have of late been obſerved to hold frequent conferences together, at the breaking up of which diſpatches were ſent off to their reſpective courts.

They write from Gibraltar, that the ports of Laroche, Tetuan, Mogador, &c. were fortifying with extraordinary diligence by the Moors.

They write from Rochford, that ſome frigates of war and tranſports are fitting out there, with great diligence, the latter to carry troops on board to join the Prince de Rhoban in the Weſt-Indies.

It is ſaid a great perſonage, lately come into power, has propoſed to move next ſeſſion, for an additional tax to be laid upon the ſtill head, as one principal means to reduce the exorbitant price of corn.

It is now with great confidence aſſerted, that through the means of a celebrated patriot, a general act of grace and goal delivery will take place ſome time after the next ſeſſion of parliament.

Auguſt 16. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint the Hon. Col. Amherſt, nephew of Sir Jeffery Amherſt, to be one of his Aids de Camp.

Great preparations are making at Woolwich, by the Gentlemen belonging to the train of artillery, to teſtify their joy on the late promotion of the Hon. the Marquis of Granby, to be Captain-general of his Majeſty's land forces.

A great reduction of penſions on the civil liſt is now talked of, and it is ſaid a great perſonage will ſet the example.

By recent advices from Dunkirk, we are aſſured, that the harbour is no further deſtroyed than can be repaired at the expence of ten thouſand pounds, in the ſpace of ſix weeks.

Private letters from Leghorn adviſe, that it had lately been reſolved, in a private aſſembly of the Corſican chiefs, if their final anſwer ſhould not prove agreeable to the French, reſpecting the freedom and independency of the iſland, they would proceed immediately to crown Paſchal Paoli their King, and doubted not of proper aſſiſtance from certain foreign powers, to ſupport his title to the ſovereignty.

It is ſaid the Right Hon. the Marquis of Lorn, will be appointed commander in chief of his Majeſty's forces in Scotland.

It is ſaid a paper currency is about to be eſtabliſhed in the Iſle of Man.

It is ſaid that an authentic account was brought laſt night from Paris, of the French miniſtry being now actually deliberating on an edict permiſſive of the full enjoyment of religious liberty as in England, with a view that the Hugonots may no longer be driven to the painful alternative of either deſerting their own country, or of reſiding within it in a conſtant ſtate of hypocriſy.

Auguſt 19. The general toaſt in the city now is, "May the Earl of Chatham retain the integrity of Mr. Pitt!"

It is ſaid the marriage ceremony of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Caroline Matilda, with the King of Denmark, will be concluded by proxy early in September next.

Letters from Senegal adviſe, that the French are exerting all their policy to prevent the intended Engliſh ſettlement at Anquin, on the coaſt of Africa, by endeavouring to eſtrange the natives of the country from the Britiſh intereſt.

They write from Gibraltar, that his Excellency Governor Irwin had received a packet with extraordinary diſpatches from England, the contents of which were the next day communicated to the commander of his Majeſty's ſhips of war in the bay.

Letters from Gibraltar mention, that a great many Engliſh merchants were lately gone to ſettle in the Iſland of Corſica.

From an eſtimate lately made out, the repairs of the ſeveral fortreſſes in Ireland will acquire the ſum of 94,000 l. ſterling.

A detachment from the royal regiment of artillery at Woolwich, have received orders to hold themſelves in readineſs to embark for the Weſt-Indies.

Friday ſe'nnight died at Bath, the Hon. Mr. Ponſonby, ſon of the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons in Ireland.

We hear orders are ſent over to Ireland for the ſeveral regiments on that eſtabliſhment to be augmented.

Auguſt 23. It is ſaid, that certain undeniable proofs of the illegal proceedings of the French at Newfoundland, have been received here, containing printed bills of their various aſſortments of cargoes, carried over on purpoſe to trade with his Majeſty's ſubjects.

They write from Algiers, that the Dey has cauſed it to be notified to the conſuls of the ſeveral chriſtian powers, with whom he is at peace, that care be taken to uſe on board their reſpective merchantmen no counterfeit paſſes, or ſell their own to others; in either of which caſes he has declared, that, the ſhips ſhall not only be ſeized, and their crews ſent to ſlavery, but he will look upon it as an abſolute breach of the treaties ſubſiſting between them and the Regency.

They write from Leghorn, that Count de Marbœuf, commander of the French auxiliary troops in Corſica, had demanded a large number of horſes from the inhabitants, for the ſervice of his troops, on pain of military execution; promiſing, however, to pay their full value on being brought to the head-quarters.

Auguſt 26. It is thought the inhabitants of Bridge-Town, Barbados, will be indulged with a temporary exemption of certain duties on coffee, ſugars, molaſſes, &c. towards enabling them to recover their great loſs by the late dreadful conflagration.

Some letters from Paris ſay, that Count de Gurchy would be ſucceeded by the Duke de Nivernois, as ambaſſador to the court of London.

Some letters from Portugal ſay, that our commercial differences with that court are in a fair way of being ſettled, much to the advantage of the Britiſh factory, and merchants concerned in the trade to that kingdom.

It is reported, that a formidable fleet of ſhips of war will ſhortly rendezvous at Spithead.

Extract of a Letter from Calcutta, January 24.

"I will now endeavour to give you ſome of the occurrences of Bengal: Lord Clive has done great things, and cauſed great revolutions; the ſalt trade you will be informed of before theſe ſhips arrive; he has made peace here with Sujah Dowla, which was celebrated ſince our arrival, all the French and Dutch being invited."

Auguſt 30. According to letters from Algiers, not only the Dey of that ſtate, but alſo Tripoli, Tunis, and Morocco, had refuſed the payment of any ſums, in the name of the tribute to the Grand Signor.

By a letter from Paris of the 18th of Auguſt, we are informed of the following articles relative to the admiſſion of the Canada Bills: That firſt, that all the bills which can be proved by account, ſhall be ſettled in that manner.—Secondly, all the papers rejected from an account, provided they contain not the whole, ſhall be proved by the poſſeſſor as without account, but ſubject to the proof requiſite in ſuch a caſe.—Thirdly, all the notorial copies of accounts ſhall be admitted as original, when it ſhall appear by the certificate of the notary, that they have been depoſited in his hands.—Fourthly, that the copies of accounts, atteſted or not atteſted by a notary, ſhall be admitted as ſufficient proof, in order to ſettle them after the firſt of October next, if the original account has not been already preſented, and admitted into the clearance.

LONDON, September 2.

The Bruſſels Gazette received on Saturday, affords the following intelligence, under London, Auguſt 19. "The partiſans of the Earl of Chatham have already mentioned divers projects which he deſigns to carry into execution for the intereſt of the king and people. Among others, it is ſaid, he is reſolved to aſſiſt towards a conſiderable reduction in the penſions granted at the charge of the crown, to eaſe the people of certain taxes, particularly ſuch as are prejudicial to commerce and manufactures; to put the land tax on a more equitable footing; to make ſome regulations for reducing the price of proviſions, in behalf of the lower claſs of people, and particularly of the working part, &c. all theſe deſigns are excellent; we ſhall ſee whether they will be carried into execution."

Sept. 6. What is ſaid in the papers relative to the revival of the Antigallican affair cannot be true; becauſe, the late treaty at Fontainbleau releaſes all known injuries done by the government, or ſubjects of Spain, to the ſubjects of Great-Britain, antecedent to its date: But we have it from reſpectable authority, that the ranſom of Manilla will become the object of a ſpirited national negotiation.

Sept. 9. We are aſſured, from undoubted authority, that General Beckwith (whoſe quitting the Pruſſian ſervice as ſo often announced in the foreign gazettes) had no other motive for leaving it, than the retreat of Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick from that ſervice: General Beckwith, during the late war, had the honour to ſerve that great Prince as Aid-de-Camp, and to have been particularly diſtinguiſhed by him.

JOHNSTON & SIMPSON,

Have imported in the Mary, Capt. Gordon, from London, and the Champion, Capt. Baker, from Briſtol;

A General Aſſortment of European and Eaſt-India Goods, which they will ſell very reaſonably at their Store on the Bay.——Two Caſks of Saddles, juſt imported from Glaſgow, to be ſold for Coſt and Charges.

The following is inſerted by Deſire of a principal Carolina Houſe in LONDON.

THE Length, Breadth and Quality of Staves required for the London Market, are as follows:

	Ft.	Inch.
Length,	5	8	called Pipe.
	4	6	Hhds. are the moſt uſed in London.
	3	6	Barrels.
	2	6	Heading.

They ſhould be from five to ſeven Inches broad, and one Inch and a Quarter thick, free from Sap, not more than four Wormholes in any one Stave, and none red Oak.

The Trees to be firſt quartered, and the Staves cleaved from the Quarter, otherwiſe they are not uſeful.

It is conjectured, That there is a Diſburſement of 80,000l. per Annum; for Staves brought from Hamburgh, Dantzick, and Stettin; however, the Reports of the Cuſtoms will prove the Quantity imported.

Butt-Caſks, made with Hamburgh, Dantzick, or Stettin Staves, coſt twenty Shillings each; but thoſe made with American Staves, will come to no more than twelve or thirteen Shillings each, and will laſt as long again.

Barrel-Staves have already been brought from Quebec to the London Market; and thoſe properly cleaved, by quartering the Tree, were ſold for ten Pounds per Thouſand; but thoſe cleaved improperly, or by the Coopers called ſlitched, of the ſame Parcel, and equal in Breadth and Subſtance, ſold but for three Pounds fifteen Shillings per Thouſand.

Note, The moſt proper Seaſon to fell Oak Timber is in Winter, when the Sap is in the Root.

Nov. 10, 1766. DANIEL CANNON.

Charleſtown, October 31, 1766.

AT a Viſitation of the Provincial Free-School, held this Day, certain Regulations were propoſed and agreed to by the Commiſſioners, greatly conducive to the Benefit of the Youth educated at ſaid School, which, there is good Reaſon to hope, will increaſe in Reputation and Uſefulneſs, by the Care and Attention of the preſent Maſter, the Rev. Mr. JAMES CRALLAN, A. M. An Uſher is much wanted to aſſiſt him therein, after the Chriſtmas Holydays; any Perſon that can be well recommended for the Sobriety of his Character, is deſired to apply to the Preſident, in the mean Time.

WILLIAM LOGAN,

FACTOR in CHARLES-TOWN;

RETURNS his grateful Thanks to his Friends for the many Favours he has received for upwards of five Years paſt, who hopes, from a ſtrict Attention to their Intereſt, for a Continuance thereof; and as he is now provided with a ſufficient Number of good decked Boats, he deſires only a Week or ten Days Notice, when his Friends may depend on being ſupplied with ſuch an one as may be requited.

He has alſo Rum of different Sorts, Sugar, Salt, and a freſh Importation of fine Flour, Ship and Water-Bread, by Captain Schermerhorn, from New-York, to be ſold very cheap. October 31, 1766.

HUGH SWINTON,

TAKES this Method to inform his Friends, that he has entered into the Factorage Buſineſs; for which Purpoſe he has taken a convenient Store, on Colonel Beale's Wharf, where conſtant Attendance will be given, and thoſe of his Friends that may be pleaſed to favour him with the Sale of their Crops, may depend on the ſtricteſt Adherance to their Intereſt. November 1, 1766.

HAWES, and Comp.

COACH-MAKERS.

RETURN their moſt hearty and ſincere thanks to the GENTLEMEN and LADIES of this province, for the favours they have been pleaſed to confer on them; and flatter themſelves with a continuance of their cuſtom, if they ſhall appear to have merited the encouragement that has been given them.

THEY can now ADVERTISE THE PUBLIC, That they have brought ALL BRANCHES of the COACH-MAKING BUSINESS to ſuch perfection, as not to be exceeded in quality of the materials, goodneſs of the work, or neatneſs, by any importation; ſo that they can make and finiſh, without any aſſiſtance, out of their own ſhop, all ſorts of COACHES, CHARIOTS, PHAETONS, POST-CHAISES, LANDAUS, CURRICLES, SEDANS, SLEIGHS, &c. in the moſt COMPLEAT and ELEGANT manner, and afford them at MORE REASONABLE rates than they can be imported.

Whether the public may think them worthy, or not, of particular encouragement, for being the FIRST who have brought thoſe branches of buſineſs to ſuch perfection in this province, (to attain which they have been at no inconſiderable expence in procuring men and materials) yet they hope, their PROPOSALS will have ſome weight, in giving them opportunities to prove what they have offered to undertake, which are, To EXECUTE EQUAL TO ANY PATTERN FROM ENGLAND, DRAUGHT OR ORDER THAT SHALL BE GIVEN THEM, or they will not deſire thoſe who beſpeak the work to take it when done.

SAID HAWES, and Company,

Have to diſpoſe of on the moſt reaſonable Terms,

TWO ſecond hand POST-CHAISES, a FAMILY COACH, and ſeveral CHAIRS, &c.

ALL perſons indebted to BENJAMIN HAWES, before the commencement of the above Co-partnerſhip, are requeſted to make payment or ſettle, as no buſineſs can be well carried on without money; and thoſe to whom he is indebted, are deſired to bring in their accounts.

THOMAS STINSON,

GIVES this publick Notice, that he has rented the Plantation in St. Thomas's Pariſh (commonly called Scott's Ferry) for a Term of Years, it is extremely well ſituated for keeping a Ferry, and is an eſtabliſhed one; he propoſes carrying on the ſame with greater Diligence and Punctuality than has been hitherto done; for which Purpoſe a proper Signal will be given at Mr. —— Fullwood's, for thoſe that want to croſs from Charleſtown Neck; and a Boat and Hands will conſtantly attend at Mr. John Tuke's, the Sign of the Bunch of Grapes, on the Bay, to carry Paſſengers from Town.

He has extraordinary good Paſturage, and well incloſed, for Horſes, of whom the greateſt Care will be taken.

All Travellers and Gentlemen may depend on being treated to their utmoſt Satisfaction, as far as in his Power.
